

Anthony Buffum

Gig Harbor, WA

anthony.buffum.dean@gmail.com - (253) 509-8394

To work for a company interested in a skilled and intelligent worker.

WORK EXPERIENCE

General Laborer

Polymer Industries: UltraPoly Division - Lakewood, WA -

May 2018 to Present

My position at Polymer Industries requires me to work as a team with other members of my production department and manufacture UHMW Polyethylene sheets weighing any where from 180 to 4096 lbs. Cut sheets square using an industrial 16" diameter trim saw. Usage of Propane Forklifts for the transfer of pallets carrying over 2 tons of material(Stacked Sheets of UHMW). High heat environment, 2, 425 degree Fahrenheit Presses.

EDUCATION

High School Diploma

SKILLS

Power/Hand Tools (10+ years), PLUMBING (Less than 1 year), Electrical (2 years), Forklift Operator (Less than 1 year)

CERTIFICATIONS/LICENSES

Driver's License

December 2016 to April 2022

Standard Drivers License.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

SKILLS
Able to think fast make quick decisions.Good mathematical sense.Great work ethic.Knowledge of electrical, plumbing and construction.Able to use many types of power tools, machinery, and hand tools.4 Months of construction as a general labor for Coast Construction LLC: Lakebay, WA8 Months of Forklift driving experience.Able to operate 16" Industrial Table Saw.3 ½ years of Oxy/Acetylene welding at Peninsula High School: Gig Harbor, WA1 full year of GMAW welding at West Sound Tech: Bremerton, WAI grew up on a farm and learned to rewire 110-115 and 120v electrical.I learned to drive a tractor at an early age.Living on a farm provided me with the knowledge to use many different types of tools.2 months of community service: Bischoff Food Bank: Lakebay, WA