

James R. Jones Jr.
Pikeville, NC 27863
Cell: 919-915-2249
robbsjohnson@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE:

- To obtain a maintenance mechanic position that would enable me to utilize my skills, and knowledge to effectively assist with startup, and production maintenance for your company.

SKILLS:

- Forklift operator with current license
- NC state automotive inspection license
- 8 years TIG and stick welding experience
- 7.5 years of electrical, troubleshooting knowledge
- 4.5 years of repair

EXPERIENCE:

Sanderson Farms, Kinston, NC March 2016 - Present

Maintenance mechanic (Master Skill 1)

- Proficient with lock out tag out requirements while working on machinery
- Lead mechanic with master skills one certification
- Perform preventive maintenance and rebuilds on various poultry processing equipment
- Perform welding of various metals on machinery to ensure production is met
- Hazardous materials and confined space certified

Case Farms, Goldsboro, NC August 2011-March 2016

Maintenance mechanic 2

- Perform preventive maintenance on various first, and second poultry processing equipment
- Setup, startup, maintain and shut down production
- Assist with scheduled rebuilds on poultry equipment

Max's Auto Service, Goldsboro, NC April 2008- March 2011

Auto mechanic

- Performed Diagnostic analysis on automobiles utilizing scan tools and schematics
- Performed engine repairs, removals, and installs following manufacture repair procedures and instructions

- Performed NC OBD2 and NC state safety inspections on various automobiles
- Performed suspension and drivetrain diagnostics and repair

United States Marine Corps, Okinawa, and Camp Lejeune, NC 1999-2002

Base radio operations and repair

- Achieved the rank of Corporal (E-4), Assistant Supervisor

EDUCATION

- Industrial Systems and Controls, May 2015 - Present
Wayne Community College, Goldsboro, NC
- Communications and Electronics School, 2000
United States Marine Corp, 29 Palms, CA
- Operator 1 Ammonia Refrigeration
RETA AMMONIA REFRIGERATION

AWARDS

- Good Conduct Medal, United States Marine Corps, June, 2002

REFERENCE

Available upon request